MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: THE VICE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Phone Call to Chairman Rodino on Creation of the National Institute of Justice and the Bureau of Justice Statistics

I spoke with Chairman Rodino this afternoon per your note on the Justice reorganization proposals. I was surprised to learn that he thought he had a solid agreement with the Justice Department to proceed with the NIJ/BJS proposals through legislation rather than a reorganization plan. Chairman Rodino was under the impression that this legislation would be announced this week. I pressed the Chairman on the question of expedited Congressional action on the legislation, but he was clearly preoccupied by his wife's illness and made no specific commitment.

Under these circumstances, I think our best alternative may be to proceed with introduction of the legislation as promptly as possible.

MEETING WITH JERRY LEWIS AND HIS FAMILY

Tuesday, June 27, 1978

1:30 p.m. (5 minutes)

The Oval Office

FROM: Jane Wales JW

I. PURPOSE

To congratulate Jerry Lewis, Chairman, Muscular Dystrophy Association upon receiving the Jefferson Award of the American Institute of Public Service for "the greatest public service benefitting the disadvantaged."

II. BACKGROUND, PARTICIPANTS, AND PRESS PLAN

A. Background:

Comedian Jerry Lewis has served as National Chairman of the Muscular Dystrophy Association for over 27 years and has raised funds for research and patient care through his annual Labor Day Telethon.

Lewis will be awarded the Jefferson Award at the Supreme Court Building immediately prior to his meeting with the President. Among those making presentations at the award ceremony will be the Vice President.

The Jefferson Award is voted by a 70-member panel chaired by Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis and Senator Robert Taft, Jr.

B. Participants:

The President
Jane Wales

Jerry Lewis
Patti Lewis (Mrs. Jerry Lewis)
Anthony, Christopher, Joseph, and Scott Lewis (sons)

C. Press Plan:

Press Photo and
White House Photographer

III. TALKING POINTS

1. The President will want to congratulate Lewis on receiving the Jefferson Award. Lewis has devoted much of his life to working on behalf of the Muscular Dystrophy Association and can personally be credited for raising hundreds of millions of dollars for research and patient care. He was nominated last year for the Nobel Peace Prize because of his efforts in this field.
2. The President may want to recall his pleasure at having met the Association's Poster Child last year along with Mr. Horst Petzall, Director of Public Health Education for the Association.
3. A National Health Insurance Program would be of great benefit to victims of muscular dystrophy. Such patients frequently undergo repeated hospitalization, and insurance often does not cover the medical treatment they need.
4. The President may want to underscore his interest in new discoveries in the area of treatment for advanced cases of myasthenia gravis. Recently 22 patients have been cured by plasma pheresis treatments. Lewis, last week, held an International Conference to acquaint 20 top scientists with this new method.

MEMORANDUM TO THE PRESIDENT

FROM: JIM FALLOWS, ^{JF}ERIC SCHNURER ^{ES}

SUBJECT: Jerry Lewis Appearance, 6/27/78
Talking Points

1. It is a great pleasure for me to congratulate you on being presented the Jefferson Award by the American Institute for Public Service. No one deserves this outstanding recognition of public service in behalf of the disadvantaged more than you do. Your work for the Muscular Dystrophy Association is well known, and respected; almost every American is aware, and proud, of your dedication to the annual Labor Day Weekend Muscular Dystrophy telethon. Through these efforts, you have personally raised hundreds of millions of dollars to aid in research and patient care. One of the most important things we can do is to work to improve the quality of life for others; your life's efforts certainly represent a tremendous dedication to this cause.

2. I was especially interested to learn about your recent International Conference to discuss new discoveries in the treatment of myasthenia gravis (one of the neuro-muscular diseases covered by the programs of the Muscular Dystrophy Association. Last week, at the Conference held in San Francisco, a new, very effective technique involving drug treatment combined with plasma pheresis -- pronounced feh-REE-sis -- was announced. This technique was developed by Dr. Peter C. Daw of Childrens Hospital, San Francisco, working under a grant provided by the Muscular Dystrophy Association. It involves the transfer of blood fluids, and was first used on patients last year. Twenty-two persons have been treated using this technique, and all have shown significant improvement -- some complete remission). I am always glad to hear of progress in combatting any disease. As you know, I am committed to seeing that our progress continue in improving patient care, and medical research, and providing for the health of all Americans.

3. While I was Governor of Georgia, it was a genuine pleasure to meet Matthew Brown, last year's Muscular Dystrophy Association Poster Child. (Ten years old, parents Cleon and Paulette Brown, of Rosewell, Georgia. He was formerly the Georgia muscular dystrophy poster child. He is termed very bright and articulate for his age, was accelerated from second-grade to fourth-grade work; his favorite subject is math. He has said that his goal in life is to find a cure for muscular dystrophy -- not just for himself but for all who suffer from it -- and that he knows he will, because he won't quit until he finds it.) The greatest rewards for our efforts come in seeing the courage of people like Matthew, and knowing that we are helping thousands of others like him. In addition to this important, personal reward, Jerry, you have rightfully received many others for your work, including a nomination for the Nobel Peace Prize. It is an honor for me today to congratulate you for receiving yet another.

FROM: NELSON H. CRUIKSHANK

NSC

Yesterday afternoon in the course of a conference with HEW Secretary Califano, he informed me that you and he had agreed on a person to fill the important post of Commissioner of Social Security. He informed me, however, he was not able to tell me who the person is.

I know you are fully aware of the importance of this appointment affecting, as it does, the lives and security of some 34 million beneficiaries, two-thirds of whom are older people. Having known and worked closely with every Social Security Commissioner over the last thirty-five years, I believe I have some knowledge of the requirements for this position and the qualifications of the person.

Since this is one of the major decisions affecting older people, to which you have previously referred, I respectfully request an opportunity to participate in the discussions before a final decision is made.

US PAROLE COMMISSION

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM:

TIM KRAFT

JIM GAMMILL

TK
Jim G

SUBJECT: Member, United States Parole Commission

The term for the United States Parole Commission member currently serving in Philadelphia has expired. Commission Chairman Cecil McCall has agreed that we should replace the current member, and he joins us in recommending that you nominate Richard T. Mulcrone of Minnesota for that position.

Mr. Mulcrone's career spans many segments of the criminal justice system. He began as a law enforcement officer, and has served as a social worker dealing with juvenile street gangs, a probation officer, a court services director, and a court administrator.

In 1973, Mr. Mulcrone was appointed as Chairman of Minnesota's Corrections Board, the state's full-time adult parole authority. He came into a rather shakey system and, through implementation of empirically-based guidelines for parole decision making, has turned it into a model for other state boards. A similar system has since been adopted by the U. S. Parole Commission.

Mr. Mulcrone is strongly supported by Senators Anderson and Humphrey as well as the Vice President. He has been previously recommended for appointment to the Commission by the Justice Department.

RECOMMENDATION

Nominate Richard T. Mulcrone to be a Member of the U. S. Parole Commission.

✓ approve disapprove

Comments on Richard T. Mulcrone

Cecil McCall, Chairman, U. S. Parole Commission

I have met Richard Mulcrone on a number of occasions and have been impressed by his thoughtfulness, judgment and comprehensive knowledge of criminal justice issues.

Milton Rector, Director, National Council on Crime and Delinquency

NCCD holds training institutes for parole officers, and Dick Mulcrone is someone we often use as part of the faculty. He is very bright, well prepared, and a man of quality character and commitment.

Ken Schone, Commissioner, Minnesota Corrections Authority

I have known Dick since the late '50's, and I appointed him to his present position. He has been a first-class person, and we could not have done better. He has done a superb job at one of the more difficult jobs in the state. His strong and equitable administration has provided our institutions with a more settled environment. If he was appointed, we would lose an extremely good man, but he has put the thing together so well, that the stability will survive beyond his tenure.

Louise Stout, Director of AMICUS, An Ex-Offender Project in Minneapolis

He is an outstanding professional, who has brought objectivity, consistency, and order to our system. He has provided a rational, defensible, and compassionate approach to the corrections authority.

THE SECRETARY OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE
WASHINGTON, D. C. 20201

APR 25 1978

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

The National Advisory Council on Indian Education ("the Council") was established by Section 442 of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965, as amended, to advise the Congress and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare with regard to the development and administration of educational programs benefiting Indian children and adults. The Council consists of fifteen public members who are Indians or Alaska Natives, appointed by the President for over-lapping three-year terms. Members are selected from lists of candidates furnished by Indian tribes and organizations in response to a public solicitation of nominations.

I recommend that you appoint to the Council the following four persons for terms expiring September 29, 1980:

Lionel Bordeaux - President of Sinte Gleska College in Rosebud, South Dakota since 1973. He previously served in various capacities with the Bureau of Indian Affairs as a teacher, counselor, management intern, and guidance and education specialist. Mr. Bordeaux is a former President of the American Indian Higher Education Consortium, and a Rosebud Sioux.

Frederick Bigjim - An administrator at Kuskokwim Community College in Bethel, Alaska, and an instructor in five Alaskan villages as part of a bilingual teacher training program. He was the Executive Officer of the Rural Educational Affairs Division of the University of Alaska for the 1975-76 academic year, during which he acted as liaison between the community and the University. Mr. Bigjim is an Eskimo.

Viola Peterson - Director of the Title IV, Part A Program in Flint, Michigan, and Chairperson of the

25 MAR 1978 0000058

Michigan Commission on Indian Affairs. She is a member of the Miami Tribe.

Maxine Edmo - Chairperson of the Shoshone-Bannock Tribal Health, Education and Welfare Committee for the past two years. She has previously served on the Tribal Business Council and the Tribal Education Committee; is Secretary of Advocates for Indian Education, the educational arm of the Affiliated Tribes of the Northwest Indians; and is Chairperson of the Idaho State Indian Council on Education.

These four nominees have been reviewed with the staffs of Senators Abourezk (who was particularly pleased with the selection of Messrs. Bigjim and Bordeaux), Metcalf, Metzenbaum, Melcher, Pell and Williams, and Representatives Roncalio, Udall, Meeds and Perkins, and were acceptable to them. Viola Peterson's nomination received a very enthusiastic response from Senator Riegle and Representative Kildee; Messrs. Edmo, Bordeaux and Bigjim were acceptable to Senators Church, McGovern and Gravel, respectively.

With the appointment of these new members, the Council would be constituted as follows:

Male 9; female - 5

Urban - 6; rural - 8

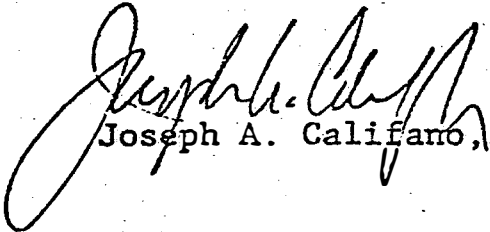

Minorities - All Indians or Alaska Natives as required by law

Geographic Distribution - 10 of the 13 States with the largest Indian populations would be represented.

One vacancy would remain unfilled. I intend to forward for your consideration a further nomination for this position shortly.

Attached are curriculum vitae for each of the four nominees named above (Tab A); materials showing geographic distribution and other relevant information regarding the current membership of the Council (Tab B); a copy of the Council's Charter (Tab C); and, as provided for in the public solicitation of nominations published in the Federal Register, a list of all nominations received in response to that notice and

SUBJECT:

The Council to the Administrative
Conference of the United States

The Administrative Conference of the United States is a permanent independent federal agency established by Congress in 1964. Its purpose is to identify the cause of inefficiency, delay and unfairness in administrative proceedings affecting private rights and to recommend improvements to the President, the agencies, the Congress, and the courts.

The Council is composed of a Chairman and ten members who are appointed by you for three-year terms. They act as a Board of Directors of the Administrative Conference. Five of the members must be drawn from the government and five from the public sector. The Assembly of the Conference is composed of approximately 90 members chosen by the Chairman and the Council. Most government agencies are represented.

There are presently two vacancies in the public sector. We recommend the following two candidates for appointment to the Administrative Council:

Emeritus, Columbia University School of Law.
Mr. Gellhorn has served on the Council since 1974. He is recognized as an expert in the field of Administrative Law.

He is a member of the Executive Board of the National Urban League; member of the Committee on Judicial Selection for the American Bar Association.

Mr. Lipshutz and the Reorganization Task Force recommend these appointments.

United States Department of the Interior

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20240

Recommendations for Appointments to the Great Lakes Fishery Commission

The Great Lakes Fishery Act of 1956 (16 U.S.C. 931-939c) authorizes the President to appoint the United States Commissioners to the Great Lakes Fishery Commission to serve as such during his pleasure.

The Commissioners must meet the following qualifications:

- a. One shall be an official of the United States Government.
- b. Three shall be residents of Great Lakes States duly qualified by reason of their knowledge of Great Lakes Fisheries.
- c. No two Commissioners may be from the same Great Lakes State.

To date, the United States has followed the example set by the Canadians who appoint highly qualified fishery biologists for life or until retirement. Since the beginning of the Commission in 1956, with one exception, the U.S. Commissioners have always been reappointed by the President. The single exception is the Commissioner who must be an official of the United States Government. This is usually the Assistant Secretary for Fish and Wildlife and Parks, U.S. Department of the Interior.

The Assistant Secretary for Fish and Wildlife and Parks, the Honorable Robert L. Herbst is highly qualified for this appointment. He is a native of Minnesota, a Great Lakes State. His experiences as Commissioner of the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources and as Executive Director of the Izaak Walton League of America would enable him to provide valuable assistance to the Commission. Mr. Herbst has met with the Commissioners. Both the Canadian and U.S. Commissioners have expressed their pleasure over his pending appointment.

Mr. Frank R. Lockard is a resident of Indiana, a Great Lakes State. He is a Fishery Scientist certified by the American Fisheries Society. He has been employed by the Indiana Department of Conservation since 1963 and has served as Director since 1973. He is highly knowledgeable in Great Lakes fishery matters and is well regarded by the Canadian and U.S. Commissioners. Mr. Lockard was nominated by Governor Otis R. Bowen of Indiana. His appointment was recommended by Lynn A. Greenwalt, Director of the Fish and Wildlife Service and concurred by Assistant Secretary Herbst.

Dr. William Mason Lawrence has served on the Great Lakes Fishery Commission since 1968. He is one of the most highly regarded fishery scientists and administrators in North America. During Dr. Lawrence's chairmanship of the Commission in 1972 and 1973, the Commission made great strides in improving the fisheries of the Great Lakes. He has served as Deputy Commissioner of the New York Department of Environmental Conservation from 1964 to his retirement in 1974. He has served as President of the American Fisheries Society (1958-1959). He is an Honorary Life Member of the Society. He is past President of the International Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies (1969). Recently, under contract with the Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Commission, Dr. Lawrence chaired a survey of the Great Lakes fisheries. The survey was in response to the Eastland Resolution, Senate Concurrent Resolution 11, unanimously approved by Congress in 1973. Dr. Lawrence prepared the highly-regarded final report in October 1976.

Mr. Claude VerDuin is Executive Director of the Midwest Federated Fisheries Council. He is a life-long native of Grand Haven, Michigan. His family has been in the commercial fishing business for more than a century. He is owner of the Marine Publishing Company and Editor of "The Fisherman", the leading Great Lakes commercial fishing publication. He has served ably as Chairman of the Great Lakes Fishery Commission and is perennially elected as Chairman of the U.S. Section of the Commission. It was largely due to Mr. VerDuin's untiring efforts that the Great Lakes Fishery Commission was established.
